Grand Commandery Of Kentucky.

The meeting of the Grand Commandery of Kentucky Knights Templar, which has been on for the past two days in Maysville was an event long to be remembered by the good and hospitable people of that city, as well as by the visiting Sir Knights.

Coeur de Lion Commandery, No. 26, of this city, headed by the Paris Elks band, called forth hearty applause from the great crowds whenever they made their appearance. They received an ovation in fact all along the line of march.

Twenty-six Paris Sir Knights were in line and with their band dressed in the Elks' uniform, made a fine appearance.

Coeur de Lion Commandery was indeed fortunate in securing the beautiful and elegant old home of Mrs. Lida Rogers for their headquarters. The true Kentucky hospitality of Mrs. Rogers, a most charming woman, was in evidence on every occasion.

The Paris Commandery entertained here with a reception on Wednesday afternoon from 3 to 5 o'clock.

The receiving line composed of the following Sir Knights and ladies greeted their many guests in the drawing room: Mrs. Wm. Board, Mrs. Frank Fithian, Mr. and Mrs. Rankin, Mr. and Mrs. D. G. Taylor, Whit Mann, Miss Rankin, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Kerney, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Harris, John Bedford, Mrs. Frank Clay, Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Dillake, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. James, Miss Detweiler, Mr. Detweiler.

The spacious rooms were comfortably filled with a throng of visitors from the different commanderies, as well as many of Maysville's most prominent men and women. The lot of the women were too varied and beautiful to attempt a description. Suffice to say that Kentucky's boast of having the "loveliest of earth's feminine gender and most gallant sons was amply in evidence. A profusion of American Beauty roses, both in bouquets and decorations lent color to the scene.

Serving at the punch bowls were Miss Florence Rogers, Miss Ollie Butler, Mrs. Swift Champ, Milda McMillan, Miss Hattie Hill Mann, Miss Rebecca Duke, Miss Mary Woodford.

The Elks band from Paris furnished the music while a Cincinnati caterer served the refreshments. In every particular it was a most enjoyable affair and considered by all the most elaborate reception given during the Conclave.

NOTES.

As Mrs. Frank Fithian was standing with her husband and a number of Paris friends in front of the Elks Home, listening to the Paris Elks Band play, the Maysville commandery headed by Weber's great band march up One of the Sir Knights walked up to the pavement and asked for Mrs. Frank Fithian. She was pointed out to him and he at once began an elegant and choice little address to her, concluding with bringing from behind him a lary and exquisite cut glass vase and presenting it to her in behalf of the Maysville Commandery. It was a token appreciation for the hospitable a charming manner in which M. Fithian had treated them when they made her beautiful home their headquarters in Paris last year.

To relieve Mrs. Fithian of her great surprise and embarrassment a Paris Sir Knight shouted, "What's the matter with Maysville?" and from seven thousand throats the shout went up reply, "Nothing at all, Maysville all right."

It was given up as a fact that Ussery and his Elks Band were "the money." They not only had their own when it came to making music, but they had more fun than a body. They secured a lot of tin whistles and had every child in Maysville following them.

The next Conclave will be held Lebanon, Ky., in May 1908.
